Privacy Policy

It is the policy of The DaSilva Law Firm, LLC to safeguard the nonpublic personal information of our clients, including Social Security numbers. We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about you to anyone for any purpose that is not specifically permitted by law or applicable ethics rules. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect the confidentiality of your nonpublic personal information. We make reasonable efforts to restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information in order to provide legal services to you, and make reasonable efforts to train those employees to protect the privacy of our clients and prohibit the unlawful disclosure of Social Security numbers and other nonpublic personal information about you. Subject to legal requirements, when personally identifiable information is no longer required for the purpose for which it was obtained or compiled by the firm, the information shall be disposed of.
